SOUTHPORT WEEKENDER

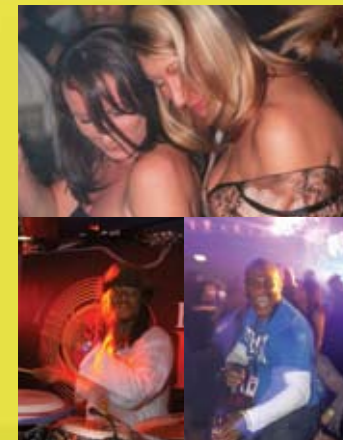

NOVEMBER 4.5.6. 2005
PONTINS HOLIDAY CENTRE,
SOUTHPORT

Have you ever fancied attending one of Europe's best loved and most diverse indoor music events? Have you ever hankered after attaining that summer festival vibe but without having to gamble with the British weather? Have you ever been curious about the reputé of one of the U.K. longest running music extravaganzas? Have you ever imagined yourself dancing alongside one of the friendliest festival crowds around, immersed in 3 days of the best soulful music money can buy you?

If the answer to any of these questions is yes then you need to read on.

Southport Weekender is a twice yearly music festival that attracts a 5000 capacity crowd to the indoor Pontins holiday complex in Southport, North West England. Having evolved from it's beginnings as a soul music weekender, the 18 year old event now stands as the most musically diverse music weekender in the U.K. calendar.

An intimate crowd of dedicated dancers and discerning music lovers will be your companions at the event, which features four purpose built arenas featuring state of the art production and sound, each covering a different strand of music.

From the R&B, soul and hip hop of The Funkbase and the main room dance sounds of The Powerhouse, to the soul aficionados Connosseurs' Corner and the eclectic styles of The B-Bar, Southport Weekender will treat you to a feast of the world's leading DJ talent, accompanied by party starting live acts and guest PAs.

Unlike many three day events Southport Weekender provides warm, comfortable accomodation, in the form of self catering apartments, for each of their attendees. As this is included in the ticket price it's a strong argument for Southport being the best value for money weekend event around.

Our site, which is five minutes walk from the beach and only a short distance from the coastal town of Southport, is also equipped with go cart racing, a swimming pool, 24 hour alcohol license and is tried and tested as the perfect party location.

Don't miss out! For a taste of what's on offer log on to our frequently visited website www.southportweekender.co.uk and feel free to ask any of our many thousand dedicated forum members what makes Southport Weekender an event that they all have to keep coming back to time after time. Just be prepared — if you come once, you may never miss another!
